Holy Communion

WORDS OF INSTITUTION

THE LORD’S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
forever and ever. Amen.

APOSTLES' CREED
I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.
I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended into hell.*
On the third day he rose again; he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Lighting of the Advent Wreath

P Today we light the Advent wreath as a symbol of our journey toward the coming of Christ. Each candle represents a gift that Christ brings to the world. This week, we light four candles, which represent Hope, Peace, Joy, and Love.

Reader 1: The prophet Isaiah said:
"The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; those who lived in a land of deep darkness—on them light has shined." (Isaiah 9:2)
As we light these candles, we remember the promises of God, who brings light to the darkness, hope to the hopeless, peace to a restless world, joy when we are overwhelmed with sorrow, and love to the whole world.

Reader 2: Jesus said:
"I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will never walk in darkness but will have the light of life." (John 8:12)
May these lights remind us of Christ's coming into the world, bringing hope, peace, joy, and love to all.

Light the appropriate candles.

P Let us pray: Gracious God, as we light these candles, we remember Your promise to send a Savior. As we wait, fill our hearts with Your light, and help us to share Your hope, peace, joy, and love with the world. May this light shine brightly in our lives and guide us as we prepare for Christ's coming.

C Amen.

The Love of God

Note: The italicized word is a change for this week to match the theme of this Sunday in Advent.

Verse 1
The peace of God is greater far than tongue or pen can ever tell;
It goes beyond the highest star,
and reaches to the lowest hell;
The guilty pair, bowed down with care,
God gave His Son to win;
His erring child He reconciled,
and pardoned from his sin.

Refrain
O peace of God, how rich and pure!
How measureless and strong!
It shall forevermore endure
The saints' and angels' song!

Welcome!

We welcome all who gather for worship on this day and pray God's blessing on our time together!

Guests are invited to record their visit by signing the Guest Book located at the entrance to the worship space.
All worshippers are invited to sign the red attendance folder in the pew and pass it on to their neighbor to sign.

Upcoming Events

Missions for December – We are collecting new sneakers and socks, especially toddler sizes, and monetary donations for Wholly Kicks as December's Missions focus. Please mark your checks as Missions in the note field.

Choir – Choir rehearsals are most every Sunday at 8:15 a.m. with a break following Christmas. The choir will sing the 2nd and 4th Sundays of each month.

"The Chosen" Bible Study – We are taking a break from all Bible Study meetings until the middle of January..

Worship Helpers Needed – Please see sign-up sheets outside the entry to the sanctuary. We are especially in need of greeters, ushers, and communion assistants. We need a few more volunteers for Christmas Eve please.

I Hear a Sound

Verse 1
I hear a sound coming from the mountain,
I hear it louder each day;
I hear a sound coming from the mountain,
And it says, “Prepare ye the way.”

Chorus:
Prepare ye the way,
Prepare ye the way,
Prepare ye the way
of the Lord.
